You should use a telephone number and email that you will have access to for at least 6-8 months.

This is the address where USCIS will mail your EAD card and any other relevant documents for your OPT/STEM application. USCIS may take on average 4-6 months to adjudicate your application. Therefore, you will want to put a mailing address that you will have access to for at least 6 months.

Once you enter your address, USCIS will ask you to verify the address. As the recommended address is formatted for USPS mailing, you should select the recommended address if it looks correct to avoid potential delays.

If the mailing address is different from where you live, you should select "No". The system will then prompt you to enter your current residence address. Otherwise, select "Yes".

What is your current U.S. mailing address?

We will use your current mailing address to contact you throughout the application process. We may not be able to contact you if you do not provide a complete and valid address. Please provide a U.S. address only.

Upload a copy of one of the following:

- Your Form I-94, Arrival-Departure Record (front and back);
- A printout of your electronic Form I-94; or
- Your passport or other travel document.

If you were admitted to the United States by CBP at an airport or seaport after April 30, 2013, CBP may have issued you an electronic Form I-94 instead of a paper Form I-94. You may visit the CBP website to obtain a paper version of an electronic Form I-94. CBP does not charge a fee for this service. Some travelers admitted to the United States at a land border, airport, or seaport, after April 30, 2013, with a passport or travel document, who were issued a paper Form I-94 by CBP, may also be able to obtain a replacement Form I-94 from the CBP website without charge.

If your Form I-94 cannot be obtained from the CBP website, it may be obtained by filing Form I-102, Application for Replacement/Initial Nonimmigrant Arrival-Departure Record, with USCIS. USCIS does charge a fee for this service.

Pay for and submit your application

The final step to submit your Form I-765, Application for Employment Authorization is to pay the required fee.

Your application fee is: $410.

Refund Policy: By continuing this transaction, you agree that you are paying for a government service and that the filing fee, biometric services fee and all related financial transactions are final and not refundable, regardless of any action USCIS takes on an application, petition or request, or how long USCIS takes to reach a decision. You must submit all fees in the exact amounts.

We will send you to Pay.gov — our safe and secure payment website — to pay your fees and submit your form online.

Here are the steps in the payment and submission process:

1. Provide your billing information on Pay.gov
2. Provide your credit card or U.S. bank account information
3. Submit your payment

When you have paid your fee, your form will be submitted.

Pay.gov will redirect you to a uscis.gov confirmation screen, which will include your receipt number. Please keep a copy of your receipt number for your records. You can track the status of your application through your USCIS online account.

Pay and submit

Review each of these pages carefully. You will be prompted to agree to the "Applicant's Statement", digitally sign the application, and finally pay the application fee.

Once you click "Pay and Submit, you will be redirected to the Pay.gov website for payment of the OPT application fee.

You will have the option to pay either pay the fee using Credit Card or with ACH from a Savings or Checking account. If the payment is successful, you will be redirected back to USCIS website where you should get confirmation indicating your I-765 application was successfully submitted.

Your submitted application will automatically be assigned a USCIS receipt number. We recommend you print out an electronic receipt from your myUSCISaccount portal. You should also receive a paper receipt notice in the mail in 1-2 weeks.

Important NOTE!

USCIS filing fee is not refundable. Avoid clicking the back or refresh button on your browser. If you have not yet received the I-20 with the OPT recommendation from the ISO, you should NOT complete the payment at this time. Click Cancel to be taken back to the USCIS online portal.
