ACADEMIC AND LIVING

You are required to certify that you have sufficient funds available for your academic and living expenses throughout the duration of your academic program. The following amounts are estimated costs for 2023-2024 only. Tuition, fees, and health expenses can be expected to increase yearly, and tuition and fees are higher for some schools and programs. Additionally, if you plan to attend school in the summer, you must add summer tuition and fees to the total amount certified.

Current detailed information on cost is provided on <https://financialaid.tcu.edu/cost/cost-of-attendance/graduate.php>

Tuition and Fees	$73,305 ($65,505 tuition + $7,800 fees for first year)
Living Expenses (food, housing, utilities)	$20,036 (12 months)
Books and Supplies	$900 (9-month academic year)
Health Insurance	$2,400 (12 months)
Total	$96,641

Family Expenses – if you are married and plan to bring your spouse and/or children, you must also certify at least an additional $4,000 per year for your spouse and $2,000 per year for each child.

SOURCE OF FUNDS

On the chart below, indicate the source(s) of funds that will be available to cover your academic and living expenses. The appropriate blocks be completed for the estimated length of your academic program: at least two years for a master’s program and four to five years for a doctoral program.
